My first personal experience with this genie-in-the-receiver came one day while my mother was visiting a neighbour. While I was playing in the basement. I hit my finger with a hammer The pain was terrible, but there didn't seem to be of much use of crying because there was no one home to offer sympathy. I walked around the house sucking my throbbing finger, finally arriving at the stairway. The telephone! Quickly. I ran for the stool and and dragged it to the telephone. Climbing up. I took the receiver and held it to my ear. "Information, please." I said. And a sweet clear voice spoke into my ear: "Information." "I hurt my finger." I cried with pain into the phone. The tears came readily. There was somebody to hear me "Isn't your mother home?" came the question. "Nobody at home but me." "Are you bleeding?" "No. 1 replied.
